DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments, see amendment, filed 3-22-2006, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 30-32 and 39-41 have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made with new prior art for claims 30-32 and 39-41.

The current claims were presented at Final, hence this office action is Final.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 30 and 39 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Soliman US 6,785,249 and further in view of Jones US 2002/0069312.

As per claims 30 and 39, Soliman teaches a method of testing/determining cellular network integrity using cellular (abstract), comprising;

receiving a connection/data upload failure record including a connection failure cause (abstract teaches detecting forward/reverse link imbalances such as lost paging channel or TCI Timeout), and the data upload failure record further including a geographic area associated with the data upload failure record (abstract teaches handing off to a neighboring base station which inherently requires the network to determine the mobile's location), and sending the connection failure cause and geographic area to a wireless network (abstract teaches the network determines the cause and instructs the mobile to handoff or exit the digital system).

but is silent on telematics and a call center configured to receive and service many calls at the same time via a wireless network.

Jones teaches a location-based wireless network which supports telematics systems (Para's 3, 40-41 and 50). Telematics systems typically have a call center (or fleet management or emergency assistance as noted by Jones, Para #3). The call center/dispatcher would inform the network provider of any connection failures their mobile users encounter so that the network engineers would fix that coverage "hole".

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time of the invention to modify Soliman, such that telematics is supported along with a call center configured to receive and service many calls at the same time via a wireless network, to provide means for detecting wireless imbalances for voice and data/telematics users.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 31-32 and 40-41 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

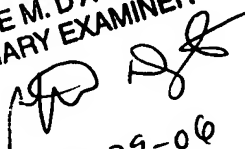

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
